

Twin Hills School MIGRANT EDUCATION NIGHT February 2019

STEAM in a box!

Students spent the night exploring kiwi crate boxes. Some students enjoyed learning and creating dinosaur costumes and fossils while others learned about kinegram machines then built one.

Students were also excited to take home door prizes and the books they ordered at the end of the night.

