1. Two CSC seats were vacant and the current CSC members appointed Greg Kapatak and Natalia Larson to fill those seats until the April 2009 elections. George made a motion to approve the appointments and Anna seconded the motion. The motion was carried. Suzan witnessed the oath of office for both members.
2. Suzan shared the results of the 2008 CSC election. It was announced the Cheryl Tunguing was elected to the committee.
3. Suzan went over next year's budget and explained that it was very similar to this year's budget and staffing would remain the same.
4. Suzan went over the calendar options for next year and the committee felt that it was good for the students to have a spring break, but that having it too close to testing was not a good idea.
5. Suzan reviewed Title I Funds and shared with the CSC the most of the funds were used to pay for teacher's aides to help support migrant ed students.
6. Suzan shared her engagement to Stan Dancer the principal in Ekwok and told the CSC she would be leaving. She thanked them for their support and invited them to attend her second wedding ceremony August 1, 2008.
