We are well into the 2023-24 school year. Southwest Region School District wants to hear from you, the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the children we serve.

In order to provide that support, the district is asking for your thoughts about four main areas including:

- the educational needs of the your children;
- how we can help parents/guardians support education in the home;
- the overall operation of educational programs; and
- opportunities for parents to be involved in the development of educational programs

Included in this packet is a short survey that will help the district gather your input. The information will be used to evaluate programs, procedures, and policies of the district.

Survey Completion

There are three of ways to complete the survey:

- mail survey back to the district using the provided envelope; OR
- COMPLETE THE SURVEY ONLINE AT THE FOLLOWING ADDRESS:

- SCAN THE QR CODE WITH A PHONE CAMERA:

Provide Feedback

There are a variety of methods for which parents can provide feedback and/or ask questions about educational programs. These methods include:

- The public comment time at SWRSD School Board meetings (call 907 842 5287).
- The public comment at local CSC meetings (contact your local principal)
- Participate and complete survey forms
- Provide comment to the district at feedback@swrsd.org

In addition, information regarding equal participation in educational programs for Alaska Native/American Indian students compared to other students and educational programs will be presented at a School Board meeting in November and/or December, 2023.
